

Sport for All - Sessional Coach

Part Time Position (Maximum 9 hours per week)

Saskatchewan Rugby is seeking an energetic, organized and collaborative person to join their team on behalf of Rugby Canada who is supporting the financial means for this position through Sport Canada under the mantra “Sport for All”.

The position requires great organization, communication and problem solving skills. Prior experience organizing sporting programs is ideal.

Reporting to Saskatchewan Rugby’s Development Officer, the position is a part time sessional position running from March 2024 up to July 2024. The Sessional Coach will be expected to work approximately 9 hours per week although the workload may vary.

Job Description:

Deliver Rookie Rugby programming to students in 3 secondary schools in Regina or Saskatoon. Plan and deliver a school festival for students. Deliver rugby Try Rugby Day events in advance of the 2024 Junior Rugby season.

Requirements:

- Available to commit 9 hours a week for up to 17 weeks of work.
- Experience in coaching, especially in the sport of rugby is considered an asset.
- Due to the nature of the position dealing specifically with rugby planning and delivery, some knowledge of the sport is considered an asset.
- Demonstrated evidence of an ability to work independently without supervision but in accordance with document policy and procedure guidelines.
- Experience working as a team member, as well as a history of performing in situations that require self-leadership and initiative.
- Displays excellent time management and workplace co-operation skills.

Please forward your resume to:

Executive Director

jobs@saskrugby.com

Please indicate which city you are applying for in the subject line of your application.